Celebration Day – Jim Stuart

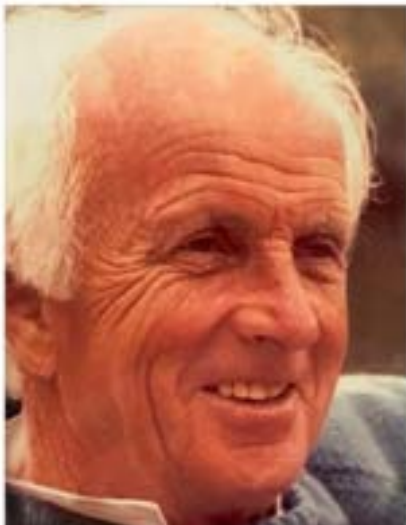

The life of Jim Stuart will be celebrated on Saturday 8 February with a golf event in his honour and an informal function on the front deck of Ocean Shores Country Club commencing at 4.00pm.

All of Jim's children will be present along with other family and friends. Members who knew Jim are invited to join the celebration. As Jim's wishes were for no funeral, no flowers, no fuss this will be a low key event. We believe however that it is important to acknowledge and honour his decades of contributions to Ocean Shores Country Club.

Jim was a life member, a former chairman of the board, a former president of the Golf Committee, a founding member of the Goonies, the chairman of the green's committee and the patron of men's golf for 19 years. There are many stories involving Jim and these will be shared at the function.

If you are playing in the event try to organise a tee time to finish by 4.00pm.

No funeral No flowers No fuss

Red Devil – Blue Devil

Our inaugural Red Devil and Blue Devil day takes place this Friday 31st January. The field is almost full so don't leave it too late to book.

Solo Waste Ambrose

The February Solo waste ambrose takes place on Friday 7 January. Due to green renovations we are not having a shotgun start. That will take place in March. Book early. Last month's event saw a record 112 players with Richard Killion's team taking the prize. Richard Koch's hole in one on the 6th was a highlight of the day.

Monthly Medal

January's Reflections Monthly medal was won by Fred Alcantara with 69 nett. Reflections now add a $100 accommodation voucher to the first prize. Thanks for your ongoing support.

Men's Invitational Day for Breast Cancer

Make sure to keep Tuesday 8th July free. Women's golf have invited us to join them for an important charity day in support of breast cancer. We are asked to wear pink on the day. If you don't have a pink shirt talk to Mick Short as he has a cupboard full.

Any member who wishes to make a donation to support the day would be greatly appreciated. More details re this next month.
